 - e) all Reefer Containers have been properly pre-cooled or pre-heated as appropriate and their controls have been properly set and the Customer shall Indemnify the Terminal in respect of the consequence of the breach of any of these warranties.
- ii) The Terminal shall not be responsible for or liable in any way, and the Customer shall Indemnify the Terminal against all damages, claims, costs and expenses suffered or incurred by the Terminal resulting directly or indirectly from any defects in a Container and/or its contents.
- iii) The Customer is solely responsible for compliance with all laws, ordinances or regulations in force relating to the Container Ship and the Cargo and all matters whatsoever relating to the Container Ship and the Cargo.
- iv) The Customer shall be responsible for any damage to the Terminal's Wharves, premises, equipment, mooring bollards, all other property, other Container Ships, vessels and property belonging to the third parties, caused during or arising from berthing or un-berthing and shall Indemnify the Terminal against all claims, demands, losses, costs and expenses arising from any such damage.
- v) Upon the delivery of any Container to the Terminal, the Customer shall undertake to the Terminal that all values and other particulars in respect thereof supplied to the Terminal for customs or other purposes and all necessary customs removal permits are complete and accurate and, where appropriate, are valid and in full force and effect. The Customer shall Indemnify the Terminal and its servants, or agents against all loss, damages, claims, costs, expenses, fines and penalties that the Terminal or its servants, or agents may incur or suffer directly or indirectly as a result of any breach of this undertaking.

vi) The Customer shall ensure that Containers delivered to the Terminal are weatherproof.

vii) The Customer shall Indemnify the Terminal, against all claims arising by reason of:

- a) any defects in any Container or the contents thereof;
- b) any mixture or confusion of Cargo; and/or
- c) shifting or movement of the Cargo.

viii) Overweight Containers : In case the weight of cargo or container is understated in the declaration submitted by the customer, the handling of such cargo or container is at the sole risk and responsibility of the Customer, and Customer hereby indemnifies the Port against all injury, loss and damage resulting from the handling of such cargo or container.

3) Delivery Orders etc.

i) The Customer will appoint an agent in the Port ("the Port Agent") for the purposes of this Agreement, and shall make the same known to the Terminal by notice in writing. The Terminal shall not be required to deliver or otherwise deal with any Container or Cargo except with the authority of a delivery order signed by the Port Agent.

ii) The Customer shall ensure that the Port Agent registers with the Terminal, specimen signature(s) of the person(s) authorised to sign on its behalf. The Terminal shall be entitled to deliver or otherwise deal with any Container or Cargo in accordance with a delivery order which appears to it after comparison with the specimen signature(s) registered with it under this Clause E 3(ii) to have been properly signed by the Port Agent, and shall not be liable to the Customer or any other person in consequence.

4) Hazardous Cargo and Dutiable Cargo

i) The Customer shall ensure that all goods tendered to the Terminal for loading and/or unloading, comply with all applicable regulations for Hazardous Cargo and/or Dutiable Cargo and shall Indemnify the Terminal against any breach of this section E(4) of this Terms of Business.

ii) Prior to accepting hazardous cargo bookings, it is the responsibility of the Customer to ensure that such hazardous cargo is permitted to be handled and stored at the Terminal

iii) The Customer warrants that full details of any hazardous cargo will be correctly declared in writing to the Terminal

iv) The Terminal has the right to refuse to handle Cargo which, upon inspection, is found not to comply with the applicable rules or regulations or ordinances or prevalent laws and to reject and/or return such Cargo at the sole expense and risk of the Customer.

- ii) The maximum liability of the Terminal to the Customer for loss of and/or damage to all Cargo in the charge of the Customer, its Sub-contractors, agents or their assignees, whilst in the custody of the Terminal, where such loss and/or damage was caused by the gross negligence or willful default of the Terminal, its agents, servants or Sub-contractors, in relation to each incident for such Cargo, shall be limited to the following:
 - a) USD 500 in the case of any 20' dry Container;
 - b) USD 750 in the case of any dry Container of more than 20' in length; and
 - c) USD 1,500 in the case of any Reefer Container
 - d) and for the avoidance of doubt, in the absence of gross negligence or willful default, the Terminal shall have no liability whatsoever for such loss and/or damage.
- iii) Without prejudice to what is stated in this clause in no circumstances shall the Terminal's liability exceed the limits of liability in accordance with the terms and conditions contained within the Customer's Contract of Carriage or, if applicable, the Container Ship's limitation fund except to the extent the Terminal agrees in writing to a higher limit on liability in a particular case.
- iv) The limitation of liability per incident under this Clause E(8) shall relate to the whole of any losses and damages which may arise upon any one distinct occasion, although such loss and/or damage may be sustained by more than one person, and shall apply whether the liability arises at common law or under any written law and notwithstanding anything in such written law.
- v) The Terminal shall only be liable to a Customer for any loss or damage to a Container Ship (including gear and all other equipment) where such loss and/or damage was caused by the gross negligence or willful default of the Terminal, its agents, servants or Sub-contractors and notwithstanding anything contained in this TOB or elsewhere, the maximum liability of the Terminal to the Customer in relation to each incident shall be limited to fifty thousand United States Dollars US$ 50,000.

- vi) The Terminal shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage to Hazardous Cargo or for any loss, delay, damage or personal injury (including death) arising out of bad stowage in Containers unless caused by gross negligence or willful default of the Terminal, its agents, servants or sub-contractors and PROVIDED THAT the maximum liability of the Terminal to the Customer in relation to each incident shall be the limits of liability in accordance with clause E 8 (ii) and subject however to Clause E 8 (iv).
- vii) The Customer shall be liable for and shall fully Indemnify the Terminal, its servants, agents and sub-contractors against any liability for claims or suits, including costs and expenses incidental thereto, in respect of loss of or damage to any property and death or injury suffered by any person caused by the negligence or default of the Customer, its servant or agents pursuant to these Terms of Business or otherwise.
- viii) The Terminal shall not, under any circumstances whatsoever, be responsible for or liable to the Customer for:
 - a) any consequential or indirect loss or damage; or
 - b) loss of profit, revenue, savings or contracts; injury to goodwill or reputation; or delay howsoever caused, including any breach by the Terminal of its obligations under this Contract or its breach of duty, negligence or gross negligence.
- ix) In respect of any claim arising under any indemnity in favour of the Customer contained in this Contract the Customer shall:
 - a) Within fifteen (15) days after becoming aware of the claim, notify the Terminal in writing of the claim (the "Terminal Claim") against which the Customer is seeking to be indemnified together with all details of Terminal Claim in the actual knowledge or possession of the Customer at the time and becoming known to it at any time thereafter;
 - b) take such other steps as may be necessary or as the Terminal may reasonably require to avoid or mitigate Terminal's Claim;
 - c) where the Terminal Claim relates to a claim by any third party against the Customer, not admit liability or make any offer, promise, compromise or settlement with the third party without the prior written consent of the Terminal (which consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and
 - d) where the Terminal Claim relates to a claim by any third party against the Customer, at the request of the Terminal and at Terminal's cost, cooperate with the Terminal or its insurers, in the defence, settlement and/or counter claim of such Customer Claim.
- x) Notwithstanding the remaining provisions of these Terms of Business the maximum aggregate liability of the Terminal to the Customer in any calendar year regardless of the cause of such claim and number of incidents shall in no circumstances exceed One Hundred Thousand United States Dollars (US$ 100,000) provided that all amounts payable under any relevant insurances held by the Customer against any Customer claims shall be paid in full to the Terminal within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the same by the Customer from the relevant insurer of the Customer. The Terminal shall also not be liable for any claim with a value of less than five hundred United States Dollars (US$500).

- xi) Save as provided in this Clause E8 the Terminal shall not be under any liability to the Customer whether in contract, tort or otherwise in respect of the use of the Container Terminal and the provision of the Container Terminal Services for any death, personal injury, damage or loss resulting from the use of the Container Terminal and the provision of the Container Terminal Services or from any work done in connection therewith.
- xii) The Terminal does not give any warranty or representation that the Container Ship will not ground whilst approaching, leaving or lying alongside the Container Terminal. Each Container Ship approaching, leaving and whilst lying alongside the Container Terminal does so at the sole risk and responsibility of the Customer.
- xiii) The Terminal shall not be responsible for or liable in any way for any damage or loss suffered or incurred during the berthing and un-berthing of a Container Ship.
- xiv) The Customer shall be solely responsible for any damage to the Wharf and or/to the Port, Container Terminal, equipment, fenders, mooring bollards, container ships, vessels belonging to the Terminal or any third party, caused during or arising from the act of berthing or unberthing, whether by reason of incompetence or negligence of the Pilot in-charge of the ship belonging to the Customer, or as a result of insecure or improper mooring of the ship whilst alongside the wharf/berths, and shall hold the Terminal indemnified, by payment on demand, against all claims, demands, losses, costs and expenses arising from any such damage, except it is solely caused by gross negligence or default of the Terminal, its servants or sub-contractors.
- xv) The Customer and the Master of the ship shall be in sole charge of the ship whilst using any of the Wharves in the Container Terminal, and her safety shall be the sole responsibility of the Customer. The Customer shall be held responsible for any loss and/or damage that may arise from faulty navigation, or by reason of her breaking adrift from her moorings. No instruction or direction given, or act performed by the Terminal or its officers shall place any responsibility upon the Terminal, with respect to the security or safety of such ship.
- xvi) In the event a ship drifts away from the Container Terminal while berthing or otherwise, it will be the sole responsibility of the Master of the ship and the Customer.
- xvii) The Terminal shall not be responsible for the following events:
 - a) Any non-compliance with the ISPS code, or any other related and necessary requirements which may prevent a ship from being permitted to berth at a Wharf in the Terminal.
 - b) Breakdown, fire, explosion, sinking or any accident or incident which occurs on the ship, caused solely due to the Customer, ship owner's or ship operator's fault resulting in the ship being denied permission to berth at a Wharf in the Terminal
- xviii) The Terminal will not be responsible or liable for any incorrect or delayed delivery of any Container which is insufficiently, incorrectly or otherwise not properly marked and/or in respect of which full and complete particulars in respect of such delivery have not been provided to the Terminal.
- xix) The Terminal shall not, under any circumstances, be responsible for or liable in any way for any damage to Containers or their contents caused by rust, rain, typhoon, flood, tempest, lightning, fire or any similar event or occurrence.

9) Insurance

- i) The Terminal is under no obligation to maintain insurance of Containers, Cargo or contents of Containers of the Customer.
- ii) The Customer shall:
 - a) take out and maintain adequate hull and machinery and P&I Insurance in respect of its Container Ships, the later from a Club being a member of the International Group of P& I Clubs, together with insurances adequate to cover its liabilities under this TOB.
 - b) If so requested, provide the Terminal with a copy of certificate of insurance confirming that these requirements have been complied with. Such request or absence of such a request shall in no way be construed as waiving the Customer's obligations to arrange insurance required by law or under this TOB.
 - c) The Terminal reserves the right to not allow those vessels to enter Port, which do not have adequate hull and machinery and P&I Insurance in respect of its Container Ships, the later from a Club being a member of the International Group of P& I Clubs, together with insurances adequate to cover its liabilities under this TOB.

10) Unauthorised Access to Container Ships

- i) The Terminal will use reasonable endeavours to enforce strict controls to prevent unauthorised access to the Container Terminal.
- ii) The Customer shall enforce controls on its Container Ships whilst berthed at the Container Terminal in order to prevent unauthorised access to the Container Terminal.

11) Force Majeure

- i) A party shall not be liable for any failure to perform its obligations under this TOB caused by Force Majeure provided it gives prompt notification to the other party of
 - a) the event of Force Majeure and its likely duration
 - b) the obligation(s) which are affected, and how affected, and provided that it takes all reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of Force Majeure.

12) Dispute Resolution:

- i) Any dispute or difference arising between the Parties out of or in connection with this TOB shall promptly and in good faith be negotiated with a view to its amicable resolution and settlement.
- ii) In the event no amicable resolution or settlement is reached within a period of thirty (30) days from the date on which the dispute or difference arose, such disputes and/or differences shall be referred to the Arbitration as per clause E(13) of this TOB.

13) Law and Jurisdiction

- i) This TOB shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.

- ii) Any dispute arising out of or connection with this TOB shall be referred exclusively to arbitration in London in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.
- iii) The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the London Maritime Arbitrators' Association (LMAA) terms current at the time when arbitration proceedings are commenced.
- iv) The reference shall be to three arbitrators. A Party wishing to refer a dispute to arbitration shall appoint its arbitrator and send notice of such appointment in writing to the other Party requiring the other Party to appoint its own arbitrator within 14 calendar days of that notice and stating that it will appoint its arbitrator as sole arbitrator unless the other Party appoints its own arbitrator and gives notice that it has done so within the 14 days specified.
- v) If the other Party does not appoint its own arbitrator and give notice that it has done so within the 14 days specified, the Party referring a dispute to arbitration may, without the requirement of any further prior notice to the other Party, appoint its arbitrator as sole arbitrator and shall advise the other Party accordingly. The award of a sole arbitrator shall be binding on both Parties as if he had been appointed by agreement.
- vi) Nothing in this Clause E (13) shall prevent the Parties agreeing in writing to vary these provisions to provide for the appointment of a sole arbitrator.
- vii) In cases where neither the claim nor a counterclaim exceeds the sum of USD 50,000 or such other sum as the Parties may agree, the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the LMAA Small Claims Procedure current at the time when the arbitration proceedings are commenced.
- viii) Notwithstanding the above, the Parties may agree at any time to refer to mediation any difference and/or dispute arising out of or in connection with this TOB. In the case of a dispute in respect of which arbitration has been commenced, the following shall apply:-
 - a) either Party may at any time and from time to time elect to refer the dispute or part of the dispute to mediation by service on the other Party of a written notice (the "Mediation Notice") calling on the other Party to agree to mediation;
 - b) the other Party shall thereupon within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the Mediation Notice confirm that they agree to mediation, in which case the Parties shall thereafter agree a mediator within a further fourteen (14) calendar days, failing which on the application of either Party a mediator will be appointed promptly by the Arbitration Tribunal (the "Tribunal") or such person as the Tribunal may designate for that purpose. The mediation shall be conducted in such place and in accordance with such procedure and on such terms as the Parties may agree or, in the event of disagreement, as may be set by the mediator;
 - c) if the other Party does not agree to mediate, that fact may be brought to the attention of the Tribunal and may be taken into account by the Tribunal when allocating the costs of the arbitration as between the Parties;
 - d) the mediation shall not affect the right of either Party to seek such relief or take such steps as it considers necessary to protect its interest;

- e) either Party may advise the Tribunal that they have agreed to mediation. The arbitration procedure shall continue during the conduct of the mediation but the Tribunal may take the mediation timetable into account when setting the timetable for steps in the arbitration;
 - f) unless otherwise agreed or specified in the mediation terms, each Party shall bear its own costs incurred in the mediation and the Parties shall share equally the mediator's costs and expenses; and
 - g) the mediation process shall be without prejudice and confidential and no information or documents disclosed during it shall be revealed to the Tribunal except to the extent that they are disclosable under the law and procedure governing the arbitration.
- ix) Judgment upon the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction or application may be made to such court for a judicial acceptance of the award and an order of enforcement, as the case may be.
- x) The Parties shall use every reasonable endeavour to resolve disputes between them in the shortest possible time consistent with the proper presentation to the expert or arbitration tribunal of their submissions and evidence. The Parties will in particular seek, in the absence of any reasonable excuse, to make such submissions and present such evidence within a period of thirty days from the commencement of the proceedings. In the event of unreasonable delay by either Party, the expert or the arbitration tribunal shall be entitled to make an award even if that Party has failed to make or complete its submissions.

F. INVOICING AND PAYMENT

1. In consideration for the provision of the Container Terminal Services by the Terminal to the Customer as per this TOB, the Customer shall pay the Terminal the applicable public tariff rates.
2. If any tax in the nature of a consumption tax, a value-added tax, a goods and/or services tax or similar tax (the "Tax") is, or becomes payable in relation to this TOB under applicable law, during the term of this Agreement, and in case the Services rendered under this Agreement, come directly under the purview of such an enactment/ amendment and the Tax becomes payable by or is recoverable from the Customer in terms and in accordance with such law, then the Customer shall, in addition to the applicable public tariff rates also be liable to reimburse the Terminal for an amount equal to the Tax.
3. The Customer shall pay all charges in advance to the Terminal before requesting for any of the Terminal Services under this TOB.

G. EDI SYSTEM

1. This Section G shall apply (without prejudice to the other Sections in these Terms of Business) only where the Terminal has agreed in writing with the Customer for the partial or exclusive transmission and interchange of Messages between the parties by means of an EDI System.
2. Upon such agreement, the Customer and the Terminal shall become subscribers to the Intermediary Service and shall exchange all identification details and similar information to enable each party to effectively utilise the Intermediary Service.

3. Application

- i. Until such time as the parties mutually agree that the EDI System may be used exclusively, it is agreed that the EDI System shall be operated in parallel with an accepted manual system. In case of inconsistencies, any Message transmitted through the EDI System shall prevail.
- ii. The Terminal shall determine and monitor the progress of the development, implementation and priority of the EDI System.
- iii. All Message Transmissions must properly identify the sender and recipient and comply in all respects with the User Manuals and such of the Intermediary Service standard conditions as may be applicable from time to time.
- iv. If the sender issuing a Message Transmission requires a confirmatory receipt and does not receive the same, the original Message should be retransmitted until a receipt is received.
- v. The Intermediary Service mailbox receiving date and time of the Message (or of the first or original Message in case of repeated transmission of the same Message) shall be treated as the receiving date and time of the Message by the recipient.

4. Message Data Log

- i. The parties shall maintain (without modification) a Message Data Log including details of times of transmission and examination of the Intermediary Service mailbox. Data contained in the message Data Log shall be retained by way of record for a period of not less than twelve (12) months.
 - ii. The Message Data Log may be maintained on computer media or other suitable means provided that, if it is necessary to do so, the data must be capable of being readily retrieved and presented in human readable form.
 - iii. Each of the parties shall be responsible for making such arrangements as may be necessary for the data contained in its Message Data Log to be prepared and maintained as a correct record of each Message Transmission and Message Retrieval.
5. The parties acknowledge that in the event of any complete or partial breakdown or failure of the EDI System and/or the Intermediary Service, they will take all necessary steps to ensure the continued transmission and receipt of relevant messages, notices and information by alternative and/or additional means such that the operation of the Contract is not adversely affected.
6. The Terminal reserves the right to amend the User Manuals from time to time, such amendment to be notified to the Customer at which time the amendment shall become immediately operative.

7. Security of Messages

Each of the parties shall:

- i. take reasonable care in so far as it is within its power to do so to ensure that Messages are secure and that unauthorised access to its EDI System, Message Data Log and the Intermediary Service system is prevented;

- ii. ensure that Messages containing confidential information as designated by the sender of the Message are maintained by the recipient in confidence and are not disclosed to any person not otherwise authorised or used by the recipient outside the terms imposed by the sender. Any authorized disclosure to a third party shall be made only after getting a prior written approval of the Terminal;
- iii. apply special protection, where permissible, by encryption or by other agreed means, to those Messages which the parties agree should be so protected. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the recipient of a Message so protected shall use at least the same level of protection for any further transmission of such Message.

8. Integrity of Messages

- i. The parties accept the integrity of all Messages and agree to accord these the same status as would be applicable to notices or information sent other than by electronic means, unless such Messages can be shown to have been corrupted as a result of technical failure on the part of any machine, system or transmission by the Customer.
- ii. Where there is evidence that a Message has been corrupted or if any Message is identified or capable of being identified by the sender as incorrect, it shall be re-transmitted as soon as practicable with a clear indication that it is a corrected Message.
- iii. The sender is responsible and shall use its best endeavours to ensure that Messages are complete and correct. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the recipient must immediately inform the sender if it is, or should in all the circumstances, be reasonably obvious to the recipient that the transmission of such Message is incomplete, incorrect or otherwise deficient and in no event shall any of the parties be liable under this Clause G 8 (iii) for the consequences of any such deficiency.
- iv. If the recipient has reason to believe that a Message is not intended for it, it should take reasonable action to inform the sender and should delete the information contained in such a Message from its system apart from the Message Data Log.

9. Limitation on Liability

- i. Without prejudice to the other provisions of these Terms of Business, none of the parties shall be responsible for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage suffered by the other party or any third party howsoever arising solely as a consequence of the use of the EDI System, whether caused by the parties or otherwise, including but not limited to the use or misuse of the User Manuals, the interruption or failure of the Intermediary Service, the EDI System, machines or transmission lines contributory thereto, or any other failures whether or not attributable to human error.

10. Termination

- i. The use of the EDI System by the parties may be terminated (without prejudice to the continuing application of the remaining clauses of these Terms of Business) by one party giving to the other not less than three (3) months notice or otherwise automatically upon termination of the Contract between the parties, whereupon the transmission of any message, notice or information between the parties shall revert to the existing manual or other agreed system.

- ii. Notwithstanding the termination of the use of the EDI System for any reason:-
 - a) Each of the parties shall complete and/or implement any action required by any Message sent prior to such termination; and
 - b) The rights and obligations of each of the parties as to the maintenance of a Message Data Log and the Security of Messages shall continue after such termination and the termination of the Contract
